3 GUIDING PRINCIPLES

3 Guiding Principles

1

Maintaining and Protecting the Beauty and Charm of the Village

The Cicadas Are Here!

The Periodical Cicadas arrived, and Olympia Fields residents were ready for them. Heeding the advice of our Beautification Committee, many residents secured their young, immature trees with the appropriate protective netting prior to the onslaught of the cicadas.

Reminder

Remember to keep the netting on the tree(s) until the cicadas are no longer a threat. Be sure to remove the netting from the tree and any string or rope used to secure it once the cicadas have died.

Arbor Day 2024

The Village of Olympia Fields proclaimed April 26, 2024, as Arbor Day in the Village. Residents are urged to support efforts to protect our trees and woodland areas. Typically, the Village's Beautification Committee plants a tree in April to commemorate Arbor Day. However, due to the anticipated influx of Periodical Cicadas, the committee postponed their annual tree planting until the fall.

Over the past 51 years, the Arbor Day Foundation has planted and distributed approximately 500 million trees in more than 50 countries around the world. Trees help slow climate change, filter our air and water, foster biodiversity, provide habitats for animals, and strengthen our communities. We encourage our residents to support the Village's tree planting efforts.

Let's keep Olympia Fields green!

Improving the Efficiency of Our Government

Holding the Line on Property Taxes

The Village has held the line on property taxes for two consecutive years. Most recently, the Board of Trustees approved a "Hold the Line" tax levy for 2023 property taxes (payable in 2024). Accordingly, Olympia Fields property owners should see no increase in the Village portion of their property taxes this year.

Village Water Quality Report Coming Soon

The 2024 Annual Water Consumer Confidence Report (CCR) will be available for viewing online beginning July 1, 2024.

The information in this report details the Village's water quality parameters from January 1, 2023, to December 31, 2023. Hard copies will not be mailed en masse; however, you may call the Department of Public Works at 708-503-8200 to have a report mailed to your home. You may also access the report via the QR code beginning July 1, 2024.

Business Is Booming in Olympia Fields!

The Village's commercial landscape will soon see the addition of several new businesses including the VCA Animal Hospital, Vintrendi Wine Company, Harold's Time Out Bar & Grill, Manifest Salon Suites, and Little Caesars Pizza, all opening this spring and summer.

Charley's Cheesesteaks and Wings, located inside the Olympia Fields Walmart on Western Avenue, hosted their grand opening in February. Excited customers happily stood in long lines that extended well beyond the doors of the Walmart building from as early as 4:30am for the restaurant's 10:00am grand opening.

DPW @ Work

Now that spring has sprung, the DPW is fast at work! With the acquisition of their new mini-excavator, affectionately nicknamed "Lucille," the crew is able to repair water main breaks, perform swale repair and replacement and other projects with little to no damage to adjacent yards and surrounding grassy areas. What's more, Lucille gives the DPW staff the capability to do a lot more of this type of work in-house, which is a much faster, cost-efficient solution and more effective use of your tax dollars.

Olympia Fields: One of the Best Places to Live, Of Course

HALO Program Is in Full Swing

One of the most effective ways that HOAs can proactively work to protect their subdivisions and residents is by participating in the Homeowners' Association Liaison Officers (HALO) program, which fosters collaborative relationships between Homeowners Associations and the OFPD. Each HOA has an assigned HALO officer who should be considered the first point of contact between residents and the OFPD for non-emergency, quality of life matters.

A component of community policing, the HALO program is an effective vehicle for relationship building between the community and law enforcement. We strongly encourage HOAs to get to know their HALO officers. To that end, HOA leadership teams should consider inviting their HALO officer to their HOA meetings to get to know residents and establish connections. Administrative Sergeant Lawrence Smith oversees the Village's HALO program, and Officer Rhonda Jones is the assistant coordinator. Contact them at 708-503-8100 with any questions.

A Friendly Reminder

Thank you to the HOA presidents who have already responded to Administrative Sergeant Smith's April 15, 2024, email request for information. For those who have not yet responded, it's not too late...

Please forward the requested contact information to Sgt. Smith at lsmith@olympia-fields.com at your earliest convenience. This updated information will be confidential but is needed to ensure that the OFPD has current HOA data on file.
